

Want to learn more about Estate Planning?

For many, the estate planning process can be uncomfortable, and even intimidating. If you can relate, join us during the Farm Forum at the Winter Fair!

January 24th
Eagles Club Grand Hall
Lewistown

10am-Noon

Families and Legacies: Challenging Decisions

Dr. Goetting will discuss how the wording on accounts, titles, and deeds determines who receives the property upon the owner's death, and how to begin preparing an estate plan that addresses the individual's wants and needs.

1pm-3pm

Succession Planning for the Next Generation of Farmers and Ranchers

Dr. Goetting will explore what happens when a farmer/rancher dies without a plan, equal vs. equitable property division, and ways to avoid probate, and ideas for getting the conversation started.

Dr. Marsha Goetting, MSU Extension
Family Economics Specialist

~Free to attend

~No pre-registration required

~Lunch provided
at noon

For more information, contact Emily Standley at the Fergus Co. Extension Office, 406-535-3919